Khabbar Follies

In this section, Khabbar looks into the Konkani community and anything and everything that is Konkani from a Konkani point of view. The names will never be published but geographic location will be identified in general terms.

There is no doubt in my mind that Khabbar is a part & parcel of life of Konkanis in North America. In fact, Khabbar has developed a special relation with most of the Konkani families and here are some examples of those close encounters of a different kind.....

Khabbar quizzes are really tough and very few people can actually solve them!?! But, some of the readers love solving them on a regular basis. And, (I think) they take pride in seeing their name published in Khabbar as a winner! Some even take extra measures to make sure the answer they gave is correct to the finest detail and don't want to take any chance of NOT seeing their name as a winner!!

The case in point is this Konkani from CA who always solves the puzzle. The last quarter's puzzle was also solved by this person as soon as the quiz was published. The answer given was all in lower case alphabets! A week later, I got another email from this person giving the answer in all Capital letters!! I think, this person wanted to make sure that there will be no minor technicalities that may make the answer given be wrong!!!

EDITORIAL

Dear Konkani family,
YES! There will be a Konkani
Sammelan in 2016!!

I hope all is well with you and your family.

This issue of Khabbar has been mailed to ALL families that have paid dues at least once since 2012. In other words, families who have not paid since 2011 will not be receiving this issue. The numbers on the mailing label clearly indicate the year/s the dues for Khabbar has been received since 2012 and if there is any error let me know.

Even in these tough economic times, the Advisory Committee of Khabbar has decided that the annual dues will remain the same at $15.00 a year and for that you get:

- Four issues of the Khabbar,
- Annual Mailing List and
- Discounted advertisement rates.

This issue has not been mailed to families that have specifically indicated that they will access eKhabbar. The on-line version of Khabbar, eKhabbar, will be on the web a quarter after mailing the hard copies.

The latest Khabbar Mailing List will be mailed to all the subscribers who have paid their dues for 2014. The Khabbar Mailing List is a prized possession of our community. Please help me to keep it up-to-date. Send names and addresses of Konkani families that are not in the list to P. O. Box 222, Lake Jackson, TX 77566-0222, or email khabbar@hotmail.com and rest be assured that I'll "Khabbarize" them!

The interim North American Konkani Association (NAKA) has accomplished a major victory. NAKA worked with Konkani Association of Georgia (KAOG) to host the Konkani Sammelan in 2016 in Atlanta. Congratulations to the President, Sheila, and the Treasurer, Suresh, who took their personal time off at their own expense to go to Atlanta and work with KAOG to make this happen. The Team NAKA is also busy in making NAKA a viable organization in North America by holding an election for NAKA during KS-2016..

Khabbar will publish all the developments and progress made by NAKA on an on-going basis.

Khabbar will also publish progress made by Konkani Charitable Fund (KCF) on a regular basis. The team KCF needs all our support to help our folks anywhere in the world. Dr. Gopal Bhandarkar and his team are doing a fantastic job in making our community aware of KCF and hope you will help him to help our people.

The unofficial Khabbar correspondents in your area who send in the hoon Khabbars on a regular basis are doing an outstanding job. Remember, if it did not appear in Khabbar, then it did not happen in North America! If your area is not represented wholly, let me know and I'll recruit more volunteers. You can send the news items via email (khabbar@hotmail.com).

On the Quiz front, it is the same story! Khabbar has still remained a champ!! What a pity, only 11 people were able to solve last quarter's quiz! Let us see how you will do with this quarter's practical quiz!!

The progress of the ambitious project, Konkani Kendra, the Konkani Bhas Ani Sanskriti Pratistan is good. Thanks to Basti Ganapathi Shenoy who has volunteered his services to help Konkani Bhas Ani Sanskriti Pratistan. Please, call him at (702)-341-6706 or email: bastishenoy@gmail.com if interested to extend your help for this worthy cause. Indeed, the Kendra has become a center of attraction and I urge all North American Konkanis to visit the Kendra to see in what way they can benefit from this. Also, see in what way we can help our brethren who are doing an outstanding job in preserving our culture.

Khabbar will always publish appeals for charity free of charge but cannot collect money on behalf of any charity. Families are encouraged to send the money directly to the concerned charities or thru KCF if approved by KCF. Khabbar firmly believes in helping our people whether it is in India or here. Here's a link to all the special appeals I have gotten so far: <http://www.ekhabbar.com/special%20appeals/special%20appeals.htm>

I hope the struggle to rid terrorism from this world will materialize soon. Hope Peace & Tranquility will prevail.

Happy Holidays & Happy New Year to you all.

Devu Boren Karo.

Dear Vasanth,

This ebook "Pilgrimage to Temples In Dakshina Kannada" by Tamarapu Sampath is very good and has brief summary of most popular temples in South Kanara. I am sure many Konkani can take Yatra tour if it is published in Khabbar! Well written.

Vastevu

Editor's Reply:

Thanks Vastevu. This is really a great book and I took liberty in publishing one of the great Konkani temples (in Mulki). In fact, this is the only Konkani temple that was listed in that book! The link to the book is:

Hope the readership will like this ebook.

Konkani Sannmelan 2016 in Atlanta GA

As some of you have heard through the grapevine, it is now official that the next Konkani Sannmelan will be held in Atlanta in June/July 2016. The NAKA Board has approved the Sannmelan Project Charter which will be the basis for implementing the Project of holding the Sannmelan in Atlanta. Please stay tuned for more updates in the subsequent issues and also online at <http://konkanisannmelan.com/> which will be updated soon with the Sannmelan information (dates, venue etc.).

KONKANI HAPPENINGS

Ontario Konkani Association:

The Ontario Konkani Association (OKA) celebrated their annual Diwali on Saturday, 25th October 2014 from 6.00 pm onwards at the Chinguacousy Secondary School in Brampton, ON, Canada.

Konkani Association of Southern California (KASC) SUMMER PICNIC 2014:

The theme of the picnic was "FIFA" because of the recent International Football (Soccer) competition in Brazil. Members were encouraged to wear uniforms of their favorite national teams, and bring gear to play soccer and other outdoor games. The venue was the picturesque and idyllic Arroyo Seco Park of South Pasadena, and times were 2 pm. till 6 pm, on Sunday, July 27, 2014. There were a fair number of members attending the event, and food was catered. Besides soccer, there were other games and events, especially for little kids. Members observed "A moment of silence" in honor and memory of Late Shri Vishwanath Hegde, who passed away a short time before the picnic. In spite of the summer heat that was predicted, we were blessed with milder weather, and the cool breeze and shade of old growth trees helped to make the environment very comfortable. We thank the committee members who organized the picnic, and other members for making it a success, by attending. Sridhar and Nandini Rao of Walnut brought lots of home grown curry leaves (karabeva pallo) for all to take home.

Konkani Association of Southern California (KASC) DIWALI CELEBRATION 2014:

By: Pooja Someshwar, Irvine, CA

Deepavali/Diwali is a time when Indians all over the world rejoice and celebrate. The meanings, symbols, rituals and stories associated with the festival are as diverse as the varied linguistic, culinary, regional sub-cultures which are an intrinsic part of Indian culture as a whole. While Diwali celebrates Lord Rama's long-awaited return to Ayodhya after His fourteen years of exile, it also celebrates Lord Krishna's victory over the demon Narakasura. Some parts of India associate the festival with the story of the demon-king Bali, conquered by Lord Vishnu in His Vaman Avatar. Diwali is also unique in the sense that it falls on the darkest night of the year on Kartik Amavasya, and we make it the brightest night of the year by lighting innumerable "Diyas" and also offering prayers to the Goddess Mahalakshmi who is the Deity of wealth and prosperity.

KASC's annual Diwali program was celebrated this year at Cypress Community Park in Irvine, on November 8, 2014 between 4:00 to 9:00 pm. After the social hour, members began the program with Aarthi and prayed to Lord Ganesh and Goddess Lakshmi. The cultural program line-up was jam-packed with assorted items. First up was the Costume Parade for kids. All the tiny tots looked adorable in their fancy-dress get-ups and were rewarded for their efforts with Halloween candy and goody bags.

Individual performers were up next. The Someshwar sisters (daughters of Pooja & Atul Someshwar, Irvine) beautifully rendered religious shlokas. Aradhya-age 7, chanted the 'Shiva Manasa Pooja' composed by Sri Adi Sankaracharya. Ananya-age 10, chanted the 'Purushottam Yoga'- Chapter 15 of the Bhagvad Geeta. Next up was Nivedita (daughter of Maya & Rethnakar Pai, San Diego) who depicted the episode of 'Putana Mardana' by Lord Krishna through her graceful dance postures and amazingly expressive facial expressions. We have a budding future classical dance exponent in our midst! Brenna Rao (granddaughter of Venkatesh and Padma Rao) was adorable in her rendition of Chocolate and Haanuka lights. Raj Pai (son of Prasan & Sabitha Pai, Mission Viejo) demonstrated his skill with the recorder as he played a few notes from the 'Star wars' theme song and then the bhajan "Om Jai Jagdish Hare".

We had more musical talent on display as Ravi Joshi sang some classic Bollywood songs followed by Sridhar Rao and then Bharat Kundaje who sang the beautiful classical Marathi song 'Teertha Vitthala'. Arya & Antara (daughters of Anupama & Prashant Kalle, Foothill Ranch) enthusiastically danced to a medley of some very peppy, recent Bollywood numbers. The mother-daughter duo of Maya and Nivedita Pai, made for a charming sight as they danced to the foot tapping number 'Navraai Maajhi Ladaachi' from the movie English-Vinglish.

The very talented cast of Deepa Prabhu, Nandini and Sridhar Rao, Karthik and Priya Gadiyar Gayatri and Srinivas Pai had the audience in splits with their hilarious skit titled "NRI: Non-Respected Indian", that was a comic commentary on the disconnect that we NRI's sometimes feel with folks back home when we pay them a visit!

Rajesh Prabhu conducted a "Konkani Family Feud" with a twist, where the ladies team "Komal Kanyaas" were pitted against the men from the "Pradhaan Purush" team. It was a fierce battle of the sexes to guess the most popular answers ranging from most popular Konkani dish, to most famous Konkani personalities to most desired qualities in a prospective groom!!! Needless to say, the Komal Kanyaas won hands down! Devika Shenoy was our comper for the evening and as usual she did a wonderful job ensuring that all the entertainment programs went off smoothly without a hitch.

Anupama Kalle had set up a professional photo booth where she captured all the beautiful families, dressed in their festive best. A Mithai contest was another highlight of the evening. The sweet spread of delicacies was a treat to the eyes and the taste buds. The winner of the contest was Sharmila Shanbhag.

If the snacks (yummy Samosas and mouth-watering Gobhi Manchurian) served at the start of the event were any indication, dinner had to be simply delicious! And we were not disappointed. The delectable spread included Pulav, Dal Makhani, Naan, Malai Koftaas, Paalak Paneer, Gulab Jamuns to be topped off with tangy masala buttermilk.

A Big Thanks to all the committee Members for their efforts to ensure that we all had a memorable get-together. All in all, it was a wonderful evening spent with family and friends, made even more special with fun, food and festivities.

Houston Area Amchigale Samaj (HAAS) Diwali Function:

Diwali night started with Konkani arriving in stylish, colorful, festive attire. The social hour was a good time to catch up with the latest "Panchadika" while nibbling on delicious chaat, Samosas, gobi manchurian and Chili Chicken and visualizing a slide show of past two years HAAS community activities displayed on the big screen.

Charani Kamath and Ria Rao emceed, starting off by introducing Ganesh Vandana by Gayathri Rao. Siddarth Shenoy then wowed the crowds with his rendition of James Bond theme music. Jokes by Amulpachi had everyone laughing and in good spirits. Various Bollywood dances, Kathak dance, classical and Bollywood songs followed, keeping up the tempo. Drama by Gowri Sirur "Bombay Talkies Masti" was much appreciated by one and all. Beautiful Kathak dance performance given by Sneha Shenoy. Hilarious Drama "Diwali Ka Khanche Natak Korche?" by Gauri Sirur, Nita Kelkar, Deepa Karkal and Namitha Nayak and "Bombay Talkies Masti" songs sung by our favorite singers Dr Sujatha Desai, Madhuri Bedre, and Ashok Pai was much appreciated by one and all!

Outgoing President, Maya Prabhu thanked all for their help and Incoming President Sunil Shenoy presented slide show of his vision for the organization. HAAS recognized Charani Kamath for the super job she did as youth coordinator and the community service done both to the Konkani community and the community at large. She received certificate of merit and HAAS Community Service Medal. The entertainment program concluded with a spectacular dance performance by Pushpa Shenoy and Fred Astaire dancers. Following a scrumptious dinner by Madras Pavilion, the dance floor was open for everyone to dance to heart's content.

We thank each and every attendee for making the occasion memorable. Special thanks to Pankaj Dhume, Anand Nayak, Guruduth Kamath, Ashok and Pratibha Pai for sound system setup, Sanat Nileshwar and Narendra Rao for stage screen setup, Charani Kamath and Ria Rao for emceeding and Aarti Kamath for facilitating the entertainment program. Kudos to all entertainment participants for their great performances. We really appreciate all who stayed back and helped clean up after the event!

Thanks to Mrs Jyoti Nayalkar, Mrs Shobha Shenoy & Dr Vasudev Shenoy for Diwali sweets and the Nagarkars and Mrs Nita Kelkar for the beautiful packaging.

American Midwest Konkani Association (AMKA):

The 2014 Diwali Event was held on Nov 1st at the Hinsdale Community Center, which is well located for almost every Chicago Metro area suburb.

The event started at 5:30pm with registration and snacks. This year there were many first times. The snacks were packed in a box and handed over to members who then were seated in the auditorium, which was laid out in a banquet style seating.

Since the event was immediately following Halloween we had all the kids dressed up in their costumes & parade into the auditorium and asked to line up on stage, where they were given candy.

Once all the lovely children were returned to their Parents the program started with the Laxmi Puja. We had our own singers sing the Aarti, Om Jai Jagdish. Which was then followed by 2 devotional songs and plenty of Bollywood songs. The two highlights were the playing of the Indian National Anthem on the violin and a Trivia game show.

The President of AMKA spoke about all the events that were planned for 2014 & wrapped up the speech by asking folks to continue the theme of AMKA in the coming years.

The grand finale was followed by prize distribution, which included a consolation prize which was a gift voucher from the caterer and then food was served.

This year the Diwali event was meticulously planned by each committee and executed extremely well keeping in mind that each committee had to work as a team.

With this event AMKA wraps up the 2014 events and looks forward to many such successful events in the future.

Konkani Association of Georgia (KAOG) Celebrates Diwali

By Mrs. Chitra Ragde

The Konkani Association of Georgia (KAOG) celebrated a "Dhoom Dhamaka Diwali" on Saturday, November 15, 2014 at Tadka Restaurant in Alpharetta, GA. The eagerly awaited celebration was attended by 48 families and guests. After months of preparation by the committee and the members, everyone looked forward to an exciting and a fun filled evening.

KAOG Youth Committee, which is actively involved in every KAOG event, held their 7th year of 'Gift of Giving' charity event with annual Toys for Tots donation drives. An area was set near the entrance of the banquet hall to collect the donated toys. A collection box was also placed at the registration desk for collecting donation to the Konkani Charitable Fund (KCF).

The evening began with aarti and prasada offering to goddess Lakshmi and lord Ganesha. Later, delectable choices of appetizers were served, along with soft drinks. Warm ragda patties, crispy baby corn and crunchy drums of heaven (chicken) were a welcome treat for all. During socializing and snacks, there were family photo opportunity moments for anyone interested. Once everyone was settled with the appetizers, Master of Ceremonies announced the commencement of the entertainment program for the evening. The program opened with the recitation of Deep Namaskar by a group of kids, followed by a bhajan. Dhoom Dhamaka evening began with a dance to an Arabic song, 'Didi' performed by 5 to 8 year old charming belles. The catchy music and well-choreographed dance set the mood and the tone for an extravaganza that was to follow for the evening. The audience was kept enthralled all evening with dance - to - the-beat Bollywood dance medleys, by kids, teen, youth and adults alike, along with a gracefully choreographed dance to the song, "Manwa Laage", to a short original skit, 'Dance Karthali MIL, Padha Sangthali DIL', and a rib tickling drama 'Soirikeche Gondolu', an original screenplay in Kannada by Smt. Usha Prasad, was adapted in Konkani and both the skit and the play were directed by, Banur Nagesh Rao. KAOG youth enamored everyone with their melodious vocal talents by singing Hindi karaoke songs and with a solo performance on violin, Vivaldi Concerto in A minor. DTNS Dance Company and The Dancing Divas, a group of pre-teens and teens respectively, had choreographed their own dance medleys, and kept the audience spellbound with their intricate and in-sync dance steps. Last year's encore performance of 'Lungi dance', had enticed a large number of men to participate this year. They had formed two groups, and danced to a medley of popular Hindi songs, 'Tu Ne Mari Entriyan' and 'Badtameez dil'. The grand finale of the entertainment program was by Sparkling 8!! A group of talented ladies with a passion for dance, completely mesmerized the audience with their fast beat dance steps to Bollywood medleys of 'Jhume ki Raat', 'Lovely' and 'Saturday Saturday'. The performances of the evening were greatly appreciated by the energized and captivated audience, who cheered, clapped and shouted "Once more!" to the performers. KAOG also had a fund raising program for KCF (Konkani Charitable Fund – konkanicf.org) to help out poor Konkani in India.

After the entertainment program, a sumptuous spread of buffet dinner was served with Dal Tadka Makhani, Gobi Manchurian, Chicken Handi Lazeez, Rice, Garlic and Butter Naan, Boondi Raita and an assortment of chutneys. Dessert, Mango Kulfi and Malai Kulfi was sponsored by Ganesh and Lakshmi Kamath, on the celebration of their son, Vivek's graduation from college. While dinner was ongoing, Raj Kini, President - elect for Konkani Sammelan 2016, formally announced that Atlanta will host the Konkani Sammelan in July 2016 and introduced the Committee Chairs. Each one of them gave a brief overview of their responsibilities and encouraged members to contact them and to sign up for anything that interests them. They were informed to look forward to more details about the Sammelan in January 2015.

As the festive evening gradually wrapped up with the jubilant kids enjoying the "Dhoom!" of the firecrackers, it was truly remarkable and heartening to see how the KAOG community with just a small number of families, once again, had come together to work as a cohesive, enthusiastic team to make this Diwali celebration a memorable and a fun event. Most of the participants were committee members who had participated in multiple performances. In addition to that, some had coordinated and choreographed kid's dances as well. While in some cases, the whole family had participated in various performances, and had maintained a fine balance while they meticulously juggled their own and their child's practice sessions for many weekends. Commitment and volunteering has been the cornerstone of the community. This year's KAOG 'Dhoom Dhamaka Diwali' celebration was going to be etched in everyone's memory for a long time to come.

KAOG wishes all of you A Happy, Healthy and A Prosperous New Year.

Konkani Walkathon to support Upaya

Houston Area Amchigale Samaj (HAAS) held a walkathon for the benefit of Upaya on November 1, 2014 and raised over $2,100. Upaya is a non-profit organization that believes in providing a "hand up" and not a "hand-out" in order to alleviate extreme poverty. Upaya's Executive Director & Co-Founder is Sachita Shenoy of Seattle, WA.

Vandana & Ranjit Nayak host an exhibition of Jyotsna Rao's pottery

Vandana and Ranjit Nayak hosted an exhibit and sale of pottery made by Jyotsna Rao. The event was held in their Austin home on November 1, 2014.

Jyotsna, also of Austin, has been passionately making pottery and ceramic articles for about ten years, after retiring from the Texas School for the Blind and Visually Impaired. The items exhibited were mostly hand-made containers, with a few made on the wheel. They were of a variety of shapes, often unconventional. All were of practical utility, not merely decorative. The colors were also unconventional and often experimental, showing her artistic creativity. A photographic sampling of the exhibits is given under "gallery" at www.jdrao.weebly.com. About 40 invitees attended the charitable event. Jyotsna will give the entire proceeds from the sale to charities in India.

During the event, lovely violin, guitar and vocal music was provided by Vandana's daughter Eesha and Vachana's (Vandana's sister) daughters Siyona and Nishka, aged 13, 9 and 4 years, respectively. They were then joined by other similar age musicians from the neighborhood, who showed their talents. Refreshments were available, making it a memorable afternoon overall.

The event was the brainchild of Vandana, who did all the background work besides hosting, including photographing, preparing the website and sending invitations. Vachana made the artistic arrangement of the exhibits, Sunia Shetty coordinated the sales, and Meera Mullerpattan (Jyotsna's visiting sister-in-law from Mumbai) worked on classification of the articles.

Yet at another successful convention in Tyler TX held in November 2014, the Prabhus won two more national trophies pushing the count to seventy!

Obituary: Dr. M. Mohandas Kini

Kini, Mohandas M.

A prominent Boston eye surgeon, died September 24th in the loving arms of his wife at home in San Francisco. Dr. Kini, who suffered from renal failure for five years, was 78. A funeral mass was held Friday, October 3rd at 10:30AM in St. Peter's Church 100 Concord Avenue Cambridge. Dr. Kini grew up in southern India and went on to become a renowned eye surgeon at Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, as well as a clinical professor of ophthalmology at Harvard and Boston University. In the late 1970s, he pioneered new eye surgeries, treating world leaders and local Boston residents alike. In the mid-1980s, at a time when some doctors were wary of treating AIDS patients, Dr. Kini helped identify and treat a retina detachment common to AIDS patients. A colleague described him as a person "to be admired for his gracious manner, absolute integrity, compassionate care, technical mastery, conservative judgment and availability to his patients." In 1957, when he was 21 years old, he left India on a steamship and travelled to Canada to further his education. He was a rare clinician and researcher: in addition to his MD from Yale, he earned a PhD in biochemistry from McGill and did pioneering work identifying enzymes responsible for the metabolism of alcohol in the liver. He went on to become President of the Massachusetts Society of Eye Physicians and Surgeons. Despite his success in the U.S., Dr. Kini never forgot his roots. He helped to fund the creation of Sankara Nethralaya, the most advanced eye hospital in southern India. He also periodically flew back to perform marathon cataract surgeries in open-air tents, completing as many as 150 operations in 3 days in order to, in his words, "break the bond between poverty and blindness." In 1963, while at Yale, Dr. Kini met Joanne Fontana at a lecture in New Haven. He came from a devoutly Hindu family; she came from a devoutly Catholic one. It was an untraditional romance that lasted for 49 years. They were married in 1965, had five children and travelled the world. Dr. Kini is survived by Joanne; children Larissa, Mark, Tara, Maya, and Sarah Kini; sons-in-law Joshua Davis and Shamus Roller; sisters Padmini Kini, Indumathy Kamath, and Poornima Nayak; and six grandchildren. If you would like to make a memorial gift, please consider a donation to Sankara Nethralaya OM Trust

Raksha Bandhan

Raksha Bandhan, meaning "Knot of Protection" is one of the most important festivals celebrated by Hindus throughout the world. The festival stands for the beautiful relationship shared between brothers and sisters.

A lifelong promise of protection is made on this special occasion. It exhibits the beautiful relationship of love, care and affection between siblings. This festival is set to be celebrated on August 10, 2014.

Mythology : Raksha Bandhan, also called Rakhi Purnima or just Rakhi, has deep rooted historical significance. There are various stories linked with the past mythology of the Hindu religion. People believe and follow different stories from the past. The most famous and relied upon story of them all is that of Rani Karnavati of Chittor and the Mughal Emperor Humayun.

Rani Karnawati was the widowed queen of Chittor, which had been attacked by Bahadur Shah, Sultan of Gujarat. The queen realized that defending her empire from the invasion was not possible for her and in lieu of protection and help, she sent a Rakhi to the Mughal Emperor, Humayun. On receiving the rakhi, the Emperor was overwhelmed and became emotional.

He, along with his troops, immediately set out to protect Chittor from the invasion. Alas, he could not reach on time. The Sultan of Gujarat had, by then, reached the queen's fortress. All the women, in the fortress including Rani Karnawati had performed Jauhar (mass suicide) by then. Humayun, on reaching the fortress, fought with Bahadur Shah and evicted him from the land.

The empire was handed over to Rani Karnawati's son, Vikramjeet Singh. Since then, the act of a sister tying a rakhi on the wrist of her brother indicates lifelong protection from him.

Significance : Raksha Bandhan is a beautiful Hindu festival where sisters dress up beautifully in order to celebrate this special occasion with their brothers. Sisters also pray for a prosperous future and a long life for their brothers.

Rakhi holds great emotional and religious significance. The festival keeps the deep rooted culture of the country alive, strengthens the relationship of siblings and ensures togetherness.

Celebrations : The festival of Raksha Bandhan, brings the entire family together. The day starts with everyone dressing up beautifully in traditional attires. Sweets, chocolates and other regional specialties are brought.

The sister ties a rakhi on her brother's wrist and performs aarti, praying for his well-being and then sweetens his mouth with a delicacy. Brothers in return give gifts to their sisters to express their love.

Introduction to Dakshina Kannada / South Canara

Thanks to Dr. Vasudev Prabhu of Mission Viejo, CA, this article is from the E-Book: (for free circulation) "Pilgrimage to Temples In Dakshina Kannada" By Tamarapu Sampath

Dakshina Kannada, also called South Canara, is a coastal district of the Karnataka state. It is bordered by the districts of Udupi to the north, Chikkamagaluru to the northeast, Hassan District to the east, Kodagu to the southeast, and Kasaragod in Kerala to the south. The Arabian Sea bounds it on the west.

Mangalore is the capital and chief city of the district. There is also the good presence of mountainous region in the state, with tea and coffee plantations.

Dakshina Kannada and Udupi districts are often called Tulu Nadu, as Tulu is the majority language in the region. However, Tulu language and the people have been closely associated with Kannada language as Tulu itself has been written in Kannada script. Dakshina Kannada has a totally different culture and tradition compared to the rest of the state.

The worship of spirits – Bhuta Kola – is an integral part of this region. Kambala, the traditional buffalo race is held during the harvest season.

Dakshin Kannada's pristine beauty and rich heritage cannot be adequately expounded by mere words. The district's sacred shrines and epigraphic monuments are renowned and commented on by noted historians. One of the major art form of this region is Yakshagana, and is famous for its puppetry. A sort of a tiger dance – called Hulivesha – is done in Dussera in honour of Goddess Sharada. Mangalore is known as a pilgrim center and boasts of many sacred temples. Mangalore can be the starting point of the pilgrimage and many important centers – Mangala Devi temple, Kadri Manjunatha temple, Kudroli Gokarnatheswar temple, Kateel Durgaparameshwari temple, Udupi SriKrishna temple, Sree Kshetra Dharmasthala, Kukke Sri Subrahmanya temple, Kodiadka, Sowthadka temple, can be covered to reach back Mangalore.

Sri Ugra Narasimha of S. V. Temple, Mulki

This Temple is a rare confluence of deities. In the beginning there was a small shrine of Lord Vittal built by Soira Vittal Bhat, an astrologer under the patronage of the local Jain King the Savant of Mulki. On Account of some political disturbances people from Karkal brought their deity Lord Venkatraman over here for safe keeping.

Later when they wanted to take back, the Lord appeared in the dream of a devotee and expressed his desire to stay back in Mulki and assured that the people in Karkal would get another Idol from a saintly sanyasi. Thus this temple became Shri Venkatraman Temple and even today this is known in that name.

Shri Vijayeendra Tirth Swamiji who gave deeksha to the first Swamiji of Shri Kashi Math Samsthan, miraculously came in possession of Lord Narsimha depicting very violent passion called 'Ugra'. He wanted to keep the Idol for himself for daily worship but in a dream the Lord appeared and ordained, "Take me to Volalanka (Mulki) and install there. I shall remain calm and fulfill the desires of all the devotees who take shelter under me". Accordingly from Kerala, with a few devotees Shri Swamiji, set out for Mulki by foot. After a few days they reached Padupanambur the capital of the Jain Kings, As the Sun set and dusk fell. Shri Swamiji sent his men to the palace to get light for onward journey. But surprisingly the king refused as the Swamiji did not belong to his faith. Shri Swamiji with a smile said, "When the very Lord who gives light to all the three worlds is with us why should we worry. Let's continue the journey." When they had hardly crossed the outskirts of Padupanambur, the roof of the palace suddenly caught fire and the flames touched the sky. The King and his men could not extinguish the fire at all. In the glare of that light Shri Swamiji completed the journey.

Lord Narsimha was formally installed in Volalanka on Datta Jayanti Day of Margashira Poornima, considered to be the most auspicious month according to Bhagwad Gita.

It is believed that when the King tried to rebuild the Palace, the trees felled for timber turned into charcoal. Astrologers declared that the king had incurred the wrath of Lord Narasimha and suggested the King to visit the temple to seek forgiveness. He did it and only thereafter things became favourable.

Continuing with the Konkani tradition of quizzing, here's the brainteaser for this quarter. If you can solve this correctly, send it to Khabbar address to have your name published in the next issue if your subscription is current.

This is a real life quiz! Last year I had the privilege of meeting this gentleman. Recently, he was awarded the highest award in his field! Hoping you know who the honorary editor of Khabbar is, can you tell who the other person is and what was his accomplishment in 2014?

NAKA, the North American Konkani Association Update

Dear Fellow Konkanis,

Here's the quarterly update on NAKA for this quarter:

First, the good news. There will be a Konkani Sannelan in 2016! It will be in Atlanta, GA. The Konkani Association of Georgia (KAOG) will be the hosts.

The Interim NAKA team meets regularly to discuss how to make NAKA a viable organization in North America. The team now consists of:

President: Sheila Shenoy Reddy,
Vice President: Sadanand Mankikar,
Secretary: Vasanth Bhat,
Treasurer: Suresh Shenoy
Executive Board Member: Ranjit Shiralkar.

The much anticipated NAKA website (www.myNAKA.org) is up and running. Please visit the website and send your constructive comments about the website or any other activity about NAKA. Again, thanks for all your support!

Path forward:

The interim NAKA Board is striving hard to make NAKA a viable organization in North America and has set following two main goals:

1. Hold the Konkani Sannelan in 2016 (KS-2016) with KAOG as hosts.
2. Hold an election for NAKA during KS-2016 so that NAKA truly represents the North American Konkani community. Details about this will also be published soon.

All the financial dealing of NAKA will be transparent and here's the statement for this quarter:

Friends,

I am Vallab Nayak, Executive Director of the Earth Youth Environmental Society (EYES). After months of preparation, our group has finally launched the EYESFILMS program. The program is dedicated to educating the public about our environment and the issues that plague it by producing eye-opening documentaries for an international audience.

Our first major documentary focuses on the truth about Climate Change and the future we face. The documentary, REALITY, will be launched in Spring 2015, the 10th anniversary of Al Gore's An Inconvenient Truth. We have created a teaser for the film and we are hoping you can check it out! Please visit films.earthyes.org to watch the teaser.

1) The first option is to support us financially by donating directly to our program. We can use funds to get the specific equipment we need for the program such as lighting and specialized audio devices. Thanks to GoFundMe, the donation process is easy, convenient, and secure.

2) The second option is directly donating equipment from Amazon.com to the program. We have created an Amazon wish list on our website with links to the items most critical to the program. You choose what and how much you want to donate. This method ensures your transactions are secure through Amazon.com and gets items delivered directly to us. Items can be shipped to 43 Meredith Rd. Edison, NJ 08817.

Your support for this program is necessary for this films to make the powerful impact it was designed to create. Please do what you can to make the EYESFILMS program's REALITY a reality. Thank you very much for your consideration.

If you have any questions, concerns, comments, or suggestions, please contact the films team by email, films@earthyes.org, or feel free to contact me at vallab@earthyes.org. Thanks!

A great opportunity to serve an Indian Charity Organization (Anandashram) which shelters already 26 poor old people and which also offers the free services of a "Hospice" (Palliative Care center)-a home for the terminally ill Cancer patients of our society. Income Tax Payees in USA get the benefit of Income tax Exemption for their donations, if they donate directly to Konkani Charitable Fund (KCF) Inc., with the suggestion that they should donate the same amount to Anandashram Seva Trust @, Puttur. The donors in USA can help us directly or indirectly thru KCF, 43 Spray Court, Bayport, NY 11705, to build this Palliative Care Centre. Please, visit our website: www.oldagehome-india.org
