MAKES A WONDERFUL GIFT!

About the Book

This new book captures the various facets of American culture and family. It depicts – with wit and humour--events and episodes that perhaps are commonplace in an American family life but decidedly shape and define it—raising children, relationship with one's spouse, neighbours, boss at work, friends, and of course the all-powerful government.

About the Author

Shyam Amladi has had a long and distinguished career in banking in the US. He has held senior positions with Bank of America, Lloyds and JPMorgan Chase. His writings span a wide range of topics: finance, social issues, fiction, business strategy and of course humour. He currently manages his own financing and consulting practice and resides with his wife, Kalyani (Meera) in Los Angeles area in California.

Shyam's interests when not conducting business, include travel, writing, music composition and hiking.

Contents

In this book, Shyam brings to life everyday characters with a decided flair and a twist of his own brand of wry humour. Seen through the eyes of a hapless but utterly optimistic American, Garth, these characters come to life in each chapter and cause heartaches for poor Garth—Nora, Garth's smart wife; his rap-loving teenage daughter Cindy, the airline he flies, Doofus, renowned economists Getinbottom and Pennydrip whose obtuse, befuddling pronouncements are never challenged and Nora's guru Hannamanna who Garth is convinced is starving him to death! No wonder this lovable, impish American is confused!
